

McKay Avenue School

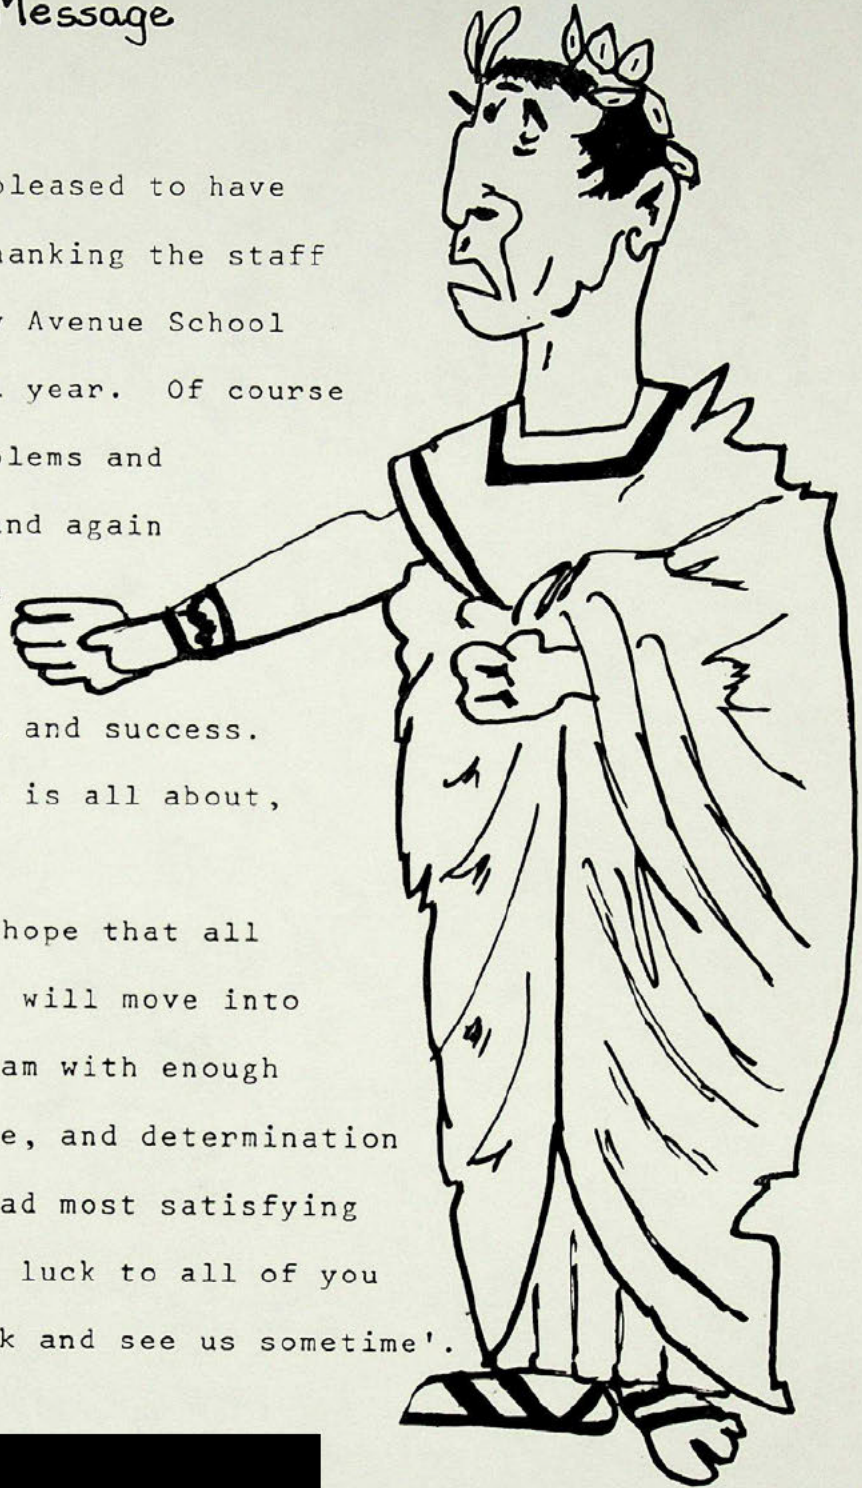

1977-1978

Principal's Message

Once again I am pleased to have the opportunity of thanking the staff and students of McKay Avenue School for a very successful year. Of course we all had a few problems and disappointments now and again but I believe that we had a greater amount of cooperation and success. And that is what life is all about, most of the time.

It is my sincere hope that all McKay Avenue students will move into the high school program with enough experience, confidence, and determination to make the years ahead most satisfying and successful. Good luck to all of you and 'yo all c ome back and see us sometime'.

Our Secretary

No! I won't sell you a pencil Now!

Mrs. Oshaneck:

are infinitely better than those who do nothing and succeed!"

MR. CORNESS

Amongst most students here, it is not ability but responsibility that is the lacking motivation.

If you learned here

- to be more responsible for your pens and work.
- to be more responsible for your books and clothes.
- to be more responsible for the rights and differences of others.

THEN MAN, YOU'VE GOT IT MADE FOR THE FUTURE!

Mr. J. Klesko

The only regret I have about this year is that one year is not enough time to get to know everyone well enough. Throughout this year we've done a lot of things together and hopefully we all learned something. Naturally all of our experiences weren't good, but that's part of living. The best thing for us to do is remember the good, and these will provide the fond memories of this year at McKay. Good luck and I hope to see all of you sometime again!

THE LOSING BATTLE

Life has it's good times and bad
You live and you die -
And we all wonder why
Good people and bad all alike
They try to wonder why they fight
Fight back to win or Fight back to lose
That is the question
To live or not to live...

It takes a little courage
And a lot of self control
And some given determination
If you want to reach a goal.

It takes a lot of striving,
And a firm and stern set chin;
No matter what the battle
If you're really out to win.

There is a rule in life to guide you,
As you see prosperity,
Never put your wishbone,
Where your backbone ought to be!

The great tests of life reveal character;
It is not until winter comes we know the pine is an evergreen!

Beautiful young people
are accidents of nature,
But beautiful old people are works of art!

Death is strong
 More stronger than life

 And you pass away

To a force stronger than life!

Isn't it strange
 That princes and Kings,
And clowns that caper
 In sawdust rings,
And common people
 Like you and me
Are builders for eternity?

Each is given a bag of tools,
 A shapless mass,
A book of rules;
 And each must make-
Ere life is flown
 A stumbling block-
Or a stepping stone.

HALLOWEEN NIGHT

by: Gordon Lee
Class D

It was the night of Halloween
When all through the town,
Everyone was running,
Even the clown.

The bags were taken,
By kids with care
In hopes the next house,
Would have goodies there.

The witches were comfortable
Riding their brooms,
While Frankenstein and Dracula
Visited their rooms.

And mother in her kerchief,
Holding little hands tight,
Had just left the house
For a long scary night.

While out on the lawn
There arose such a clatter,
Everyone jumped 'round
To see what was the matter.

Back to our house,
We were there in a flash
Someone dropped a bottle
And made a loud crash.

Down the street came a man
With a leap and a bound
He was dressed all in black
From his head to the ground.

His eyes were so dark,
His face was so black,
His cheeks were like dirt,
His mouth was all slack.

The scars on his face
Were open and sore
His bloodthirsty teeth
Were ready for more.

With a wink of his eye,
And a jerk of his head,
Everyone knew-
He was something to dread.

He never spoke a word
Just went to his work
When he was finished,
He turned with a jerk.

All that he said,
On that dreadful night,
Was, "Happy Halloween,"
And to all a good bite!!

"THE ABANDONED HOUSE"

When the boys start exploring the house, they hear a noise coming from the attic and they make their way toward it slowly. When they hear chains rattling they have second thoughts about exploring the old house. But they do not believe in ghosts so they open the trap door to the attic.

Then they see the President gagged and tied up with chains-they quickly take off the gag. The President tells the boys that he has been kidnapped, by a couple of ex-cons that plan to kill him if the ransom of two million dollars in unmarked bills is not paid within six hours. The boys look inside an old cabinet and find a crowbar. Ten minutes later they hear someone coming into the house, it was the two ex-cons. The two boys hid behind the cabinet that had the crowbar inside. The two men came inside the attic and one of them had a rifle, pointed it at the president and said, "How did you get out of those chains?" Before the ex-cons took any further action one of the boys took a steel pipe and held it up against the back of the man with the rifle, the boy said in a deep voice, "Put it down slowly and don't turn around." Then the other boy did the same thing, the man put down the rifle and they both put up their hands.

The boys led the men out of the attic and through the back door of the house. Luckily there was a patrolcar and two policemen stepped out. They seized the men as soon as the boys told them what had happened, luckily for the boys, the old lady across the alley had phoned the police as soon as she had seen the boys entering the abandoned house.

IF

A million silver tinkling bells
A thousand candles glow
The sweetest carols ever heard,
The whitest fallen snow.
A hundred gifts or greetings,
Or the gayest shopping mart
Can never bring you Christmas if..
There's no Christmas in your heart!

Hey! the little postman,
And his little dog,
Here he comes a hopping

There's none like pretty Sally
She is the darling of my heart,
And she lives in our alley.

Is half so sweet as Sally;
She is the darling of my heart,
And she lives in our alley.

WHAT DOES A GOOD FRIEND MEAN TO YOU?

A good friend is someone who cares about other people and not just her or himself. A friend is someone, when they help people out and listen to people. A friend would never betray another friend like never talk behind their back or run them down or turn against them.

... T. Badry

A good friend is someone who I can talk to and enjoys the same things I do. He never goes anywhere without me or without asking me to come. But this person always helps me do things and teaches me things. An example of what I mean is when my bike is wrecked he showed me how to fix it.

... B. Kilby

He never calls you names, tells you you're smart when you are really stupid. But this person always understands and helps. Here's an example of what I mean. When you are feeling depressed, he helps someone to make you laugh. Someone to play with and someone to help you with any problem.

... J. Yonkers

A good friend is someone who I can talk to, likes me and I feel comfortable with. He never enjoyed the same hobbies as I do but gets along with me, and respects me. But this person always helps me and saves my life. Here's an example of what I mean. I can talk to him when I'm down and he listens to me and my problems.

...Randy McI.

A good friend is someone who respects you, helps you and is honest. He never steals from you or damages your personal property. This person lends you money and pays you back when you lend him money. A good friend doesn't criticize you if you make mistakes and takes your work for things. That's a perfect friend.

... Darwin D.

A good friend is someone who I can talk to and respects me and listens to me and my problems. He never leaves me out, gives up on me or puts me down. He always helps me when I need it and always trusts me.

.... James. N.

A good friend is someone who helps me, talks to me and listens to me.

....Joe M.

A good friend is someone who helps you, shares with you and goes places with you. He never tells on you or lies to you. This person always trusts and respects you.

When first I knew I was at this school
People thought I was a fool
"That old school," they often said,
"Has had it's time-it's a long time dead!"

Upon arrival I understood,
The walls were cracked, the floors no good
The school in need of much repairs
The gym was up three flights of stairs.

What situation could be worse than this
A nice new school, I sorely missed.
But I was wrong as can be seen
By the staff and students - the best thats been.

The students indifference turned to delight,
The difference was like day and night
The building itself is still a disgrace,
It's the people that make it a wonderful place!
